

Program Guidelines

SHORT FILM FUND

The Short Film Fund provides an opportunity for emerging filmmakers to participate in a mentored program that will:

- provide up to $25,000, including the cost of mentoring services
- provide mentoring from an established industry professional by planning milestone dates for project development, a budget and offer advice, expertise and support

PROJECT INFORMATION

Applicant's Name:
Mailing Address:
Home Telephone:
Work Telephone:
Email:
Are you a Nunavut Resident? Yes No
Are you currently working in the film, television or digital media industry? Yes No if yes, length of on-screen credit (less than 1 hr.):
Name of Mentor:
Mentor's Mailing Address:
Mentor's Telephone:
Mentor's Email:
Working Title of Project:

Short Description of Project, including short synopsis of story:
Original Version (check one): English Inuktitut Inuinnaqtun French
Estimated Length of Project (less than 30 minutes):
Production (check one): Film Video Digital media Animation
Video Format Delivery: SD (720 x 486) HD (1920 x 1080)
Type of content: Fiction Non-fiction/Documentary
The proposed project is (check one): Entirely original Based in whole or in part on portrayal of actual persons/facts/events Based on other works
If the project is based on another work: Title of Work: Name of Author: Name of Copyright Owner:
Status of Rights Ownership:
Is this work commissioned? Yes No
Projected Date of Completion:
Amount Requested to Nunavut Film: $
Is Inuktit Language Incentive being requested? Yes No
If Yes, for how much?
Total Requested to Nunavut Film (Short Film and Inuktit Language Incentive): $

Application Checklist:

- completed Short Film Fund Application Form
- detailed budget with financing plan
- a script (no project with excessive language, violence or sexual exploitation will be approved)
- a storyboard or treatment
- provide details on stylistic approach, setting, overall tone
- chain of title documents
- description of expectations of mentorship that outlines what will be gained
- a letter of reference from a recognized industry professional
- CV and biography for applicant
- CV and biography for mentor

I hereby confirm that the information contained in this application and the attached supporting documentation are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Signature of Applicant _____

Print Name _____

Date _____